

COMMODORE'S NOTE

Our barbecue/inside regatta/swim party at the Allens' home was a big hit. I think I counted 35 in attendance. You will hear more about that in the September/October Rhumb Line. Also, our own Carl Ericsson educated us in July on the sea mammals of the East Coast. He had attended a conference called SEAMAMMS and created a program to share with us. Thanks, Carl. It was eye-opening.

SPEAKERS

Monday, August 11 - Connie Shreve, of the Savannah Barge Canal, will be our speaker.

Monday, September 8, our own Pat & Joy Howard will entertain us with a report of their recent LOOP trip.

Monday, October 13, Sarah Jones, the Executive Director of the Tybee Island Historical Society is returning to speak to us about Tybee Island. She spoke before about the lighthouse.

Saturday, November 8, Change of Watch at the Savannah Country Club.

Monday, December 8, Christmas Party at Marsh Harbor Clubhouse.

CRUISES

You will have received an email from Dawson about his ideas for an addendum to our Palmetto Bay Cruise August 16-17. He has invited the Chatham Sailing Club to join us, rafting up or anchoring off of the community dock on Daufuskie Friday evening. Then we would leave for Palmetto Bay early Saturday afternoon. You will hear more details as it gets closer to time.

Remember to make reservations for September 5-7 at Safe Harbor, Beaufort, for the "After Labor Day Cruise."

SAILING EVENTS

Per Shane McCarthy of the SYC and Luke Spink of CORA:

If you are interested in doing some offshore racing, the CORA Quicksilver Cup and SYC Savannah Cup are great opportunities!

These two races will be held back-to-back on the weekend of August 15-
