

COMMODORE'S NOTE

The Fearsome Foursome (Tim, Judy, Tommy, and I) took our annual trek May 5-27 down the Intracoastal to Brunswick Landing Marina and Port 32 at Ortega in Jacksonville. As usual, we had a great time. However, as usual, we had our sets of problems. You'll be reading about them in the July/August Rhumb Line. Stay tuned. It's always entertaining!

SPEAKERS

This Monday, June 9 - Anthony Groover, a Tugboat Captain with Moran, will be speaking. I understand that his stepmother is Paula Deen.

Monday, July 14 - Our own Carl Ericsson will be speaking about the Southeast Sea Mammals (SEAMAMMS) conference he attended.

Monday, August 11 - Connie Shreve, Savannah Barge Canal, will be our speaker.

Monday, September 8, our own Pat & Joy Howard will entertain us with a report of their recent LOOP trip.

Monday, October 13, Sarah Jones, the Executive Director of the Tybee Island Historical Society is returning to speak to us about Tybee Island. She spoke before about the lighthouse.

Saturday, November 15, Change of Watch at the Savannah Country Club.

Monday, December 8, Christmas Party at Marsh Harbor Clubhouse.

CRUISES

With Larry and Mary Ellen in Great Britain, Dawson organized us for the Memorial Day weekend cruise to the DNR dock at Wassaw. This time Obedience tied up on one side of the dock, creating perfect shade for our Saturday night eats. Wait for Me tied up on the other side. Everyone else came by dinghy. There were nine attending Saturday night and fourteen Sunday morning for the brunch. Five visitors from the Chatham Sailing Club joined us that morning. They brought food as well and, as usual, we had plenty.

SAILING EVENTS

Wednesday Summer Series: We are trying to find a replacement for Yachtbot, which allowed us to run this series without a Race Committee. Unfortunately, it is no longer available. If you have any suggestions, please let me know!

Please consider showing up at the Summer Sailstice Raft-Up on Saturday, June 21. For details, visit: <https://summersailstice.com/event/2025-csc-annual-summer-sailstice-raft>

SOCIALS

Saturday, July 19, is our much-awaited pool party at Steve and Pam's house. This year we won't have a storm like last time. (I figure I can give as good a forecast as the weatherman these days.) Pam will be filling us in on more details at the meetings and will probably have a sign-up sheet. Remember, we will be having our Geechee Sailing Regatta in their enclosed pool so you need to be getting your entry ready. You can make your boat out of anything, even old Publix meat trays (as was done once before) or go all fancy. Electric fans will be our wind source.
